Hitch yer wagon to the most unique brew tour in Bend. Well Traveled Fork now offers horse drawn wagon tours where you'll discover some of the Central Oregon's best watering holes as you mosey down the Bend Ale trail to tour local breweries and wet yer whistle with some of the finest suds this side of the Cascades.

The brew tour will take you to local breweries where you'll enjoy sampling beer and learn about brewing straight from the horse's mouth. At each stop on the beer tour you'll have an opportunity to see the brewing facilities, sample delicious ales, and meet the owners or brew masters who are scouting new frontiers in craft brewing. As part of the brew tour you'll also serve up some tasty lunch grub prepared by Chef Bette.
